Eligibility Guidelines:

- A. Only one (1) registration per band, is allowed. More than one registration per band will result in automatic disqualification.
- B. To be considered a "band", you need at least one musician, to play a musical instrument. You do not need a full band in order to compete.
- C. Performers must be the age of 18 years or above to participate in the Festival Battle of the Bands. If a performer is not 18 years of age, a parent and/or legal guardian must accompany the performer throughout the battle period and must sign all forms on behalf of the underage performer.
- D. All performers/bands must compete on behalf of only one band.
- E. All band members/performers must be regularly performing members of the band and not a "fill in."
- F. Performers/band names cannot be changed after the registration deadline.
- G. There is no limit to the number of bands that may apply for this competition, however, applications received will be reviewed and, based upon eligibility and specific selection criteria, only a select number of bands will be allowed to participate. Those bands that are selected to participate, no more than 20, will be placed on the Festival website for fan voting. Online fan voting will determine the preliminary battle semifinalists.
- H. All performers/bands will be required to pay a $200.00 deposit to the Florida Strawberry Festival upon their selection as a semifinalist to ensure their attendance at the event in compliance with the rules and regulations herein. Upon completion of the battle(s), in its entirety, the $200.00 deposit will be refunded if the attendance requirement and all other rules and regulations have been met.
- I. All performers/bands must guarantee that they will be able to perform at the 2019 Festival Battle of the Bands preliminary battles and final battle, in its entirety with the same band member(s) and instruments or shall forfeit the $200.00 deposit.
- J. At a minimum, one band member must have proof of residency within the counties listed above for the band to be eligible to compete.
- K. There is no specific genre of music required, however, no explicit language will be allowed. All explicit lyrics must be modified or omitted. Use of explicit language will result in immediate disqualification and forfeiture of prize(s) and deposit.
- L. Any distasteful or vulgar behavior and/or damage to the Festival will result in an automatic disqualification at the sole discretion of the Festival management, committee members and/or judges.
- M. Clothing must be free from obscenities. This is a family-oriented event. All contestants are to act accordingly.

- N. No performers/ bands can be employed by the Festival. Publix associates are not eligible to enter the Battle of the Bands competition.
- O. In the unfortunate event any member of a band is not eligible or is disqualified, then the entire band may be subject to disqualification.
- P. The use of any illegal substance will not be tolerated. If any band/performance member is suspected to be under the influence of an illegal substance, the entire band/ performer will be subject to disqualification and the proper authorities will be notified. In addition, if any band member(s)/performer is suspected of alcohol use, the entire band/ performers may be disqualified.
- Q. All band members are required to be present at least 30 minutes prior to performance time to check in with the coordinator.
- R. All participants associated with each band, are expected to be courteous and respectful to one another and follow direction given by Festival staff and on-site sound personnel.
- S. Bands/performers will be notified via email or phone of their eligibility and/or acceptance to participate in the 2019 Festival Battle of the Bands event.
- T. Those bands selected for the 2019 Festival's Battle of the Bands event may be asked to submit additional photos and/or biographical info to be used for online voting purposes. Additionally, other marketing information may be requested (i.e. link to website, YouTube video, etc.)
- U. All bands must be unsigned with any recording company, as of January 2018.
- V. Must have a substantial following via social media (i.e. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc.)
- W. In the event a Top 9 finalist cannot participate, an alternate band/performer will be chosen from the list of selected applicants.
- X. An informative meeting will be held with the Top 9 finalist band/performers representative after the new year but prior to battle(s).
- Y. Eligibility will be determined solely and to the discretion of the Festival's Battle of the Bands' committee based only upon the above-mentioned criteria.

- N. All bands/performers are required to submit a stage plot and input list by Monday, February 25, 2019 by 5 p.m.

Judging Process and Tabulation of Scores for Preliminary Battles:

- A. Bands will be judged at the conclusion of their session during preliminary battle rounds.
- B. Judges have been selected based upon their expertise in the entertainment industry.
- C. The five judging areas (which shall constitute 50% of the total points) are as follows:
 - 1. Quality of Performance
 - evidence of planning and preparedness-SHOW READY
 - how the members of the band interact with each other
 - overall ability to command the audience and stage
 - conformance to competition rules (i.e. time, language, etc.)
 - 2. Musical Proficiency
 - evidence of technical expertise in voice and/or of an instrument
 - clarity, lyrical content and overall musical performance
 - originality of songs, either covers or originals
 - 3. Stage Presence/ Showmanship
 - creativity in song choice and/or delivery (covers and originals)
 - professionalism
 - band personality suitable to genre
 - entertainment value
 - 4. Audience Participation
 - how well the band engages with the crowd and judges
 - evidence of the band creating positive reactions/applause
 - confidence and ability to manipulate the audience's mood
 - 5. Commercial Viability
 - Uniqueness and original vibe
 - appealing presence
 - authenticity of genre selection

Percentages for the preliminary battle scoring will be:

Judges Score (based upon above mentioned criteria)- 50%

Fan Ballot Votes- 50% (Each fan will receive one (1) ballot upon entry to the show area. Fan ballot votes must be submitted during or prior to the conclusion of that day's preliminary event. Fans may only vote for bands that played on the day of their attendance.)

Percentages for the final battle scoring will be:

Judges Scores (based upon above mentioned criteria)-50%

Fan Ballot Votes- 50% (Each fan will receive one (1) ballot upon entry to the stadium. Fan ballot votes must be submitted during or prior to the conclusion of that day's final event.)

- D. A Festival Battle of the Band's committee member will collect score cards from each judge at the conclusion of each band's set and secure them for tabulation.
- E. Bands that exceed their time slot will have ten points deducted from their total score for every one minute they go over the maximum time allotted. (e.g. 2 mins. exceeded = 20 pt. deduction)
- F. The band is responsible for the timing of their set. The Festival will not monitor or alert a band that they're over or under time. However, a representative will keep track for scoring purposes.
- G. The Festival has the authority to remove any band from the stage due to any item(s), action or language deemed inappropriate or unprofessional.
- H. The Festival has the authority to place a hard stop and remove the band from the stage if they exceed their allotted maximum time of five (5) or more minutes. If more than five minutes is exceeded that band is subject to immediate disqualification.
- I. In the event of a tie, the judges' score cards will be reviewed. The band with the highest score in the Musical Proficiency category will be awarded the winner.
- J. At the conclusion of the preliminary event, and tabulation of scores, the bands with the top three scores will be notified via the Festival website/social media. The top two winners will advance to the final battle and the third-place winner will receive honorable mention but will not compete in the final battle event. All scores from preliminary battles will be voided and scores for the bands selected for the final battle will be reset to zero.
- K. All tabulations of scores for preliminary and final battles will be performed by an independent auditor.
- L. At the conclusion of the final event, and tabulation of all scores, the emcee will announce the winner(s) on the Wish Farms Sound Stage.

Online Fan Voting:

- A. Online voting will commence shortly after all applications have been submitted and reviewed for consideration.
