THE COMPETITION

The contestants will be judged on the four divisions of Personal Interview Competition, Public Speaking Competition, Casual Wear and Evening Gown Competition. Of the total points awarded for the above divisions, the following percentages will be awarded:

Personal Interview Competition	25%
Public Speaking Competition	15%
Casual Wear	30%
Evening Gown Competition	30%

No less than four judges will be used for the Pageant. Judges will be chosen from a list of accredited judges.

PHASE ONE: The personal Interview will take place on Saturday, January 19, 2019, (time and place to be announced later). All contestants are required to meet with the judges. The attire for this interview is career dress or coordinates. The same outfit must be worn for the Public Speaking Competition of the pageant. In this division, the contestants will be judged on the personal interview only, with no relation to their other qualifications. The criteria for this division are as follows:

The young lady selected as the Florida Strawberry Festival® Queen will represent the Florida Strawberry Festival® and the City of Plant City, both locally and elsewhere. Her overall appearance and her personality will be observed for desirable traits. She should be able to speak effectively and should be well versed on information concerning the Florida Strawberry Festival®, Strawberry Industry and the City of Plant City. In responding to questions and in discussion of the industry she expects to represent, she should portray sincerity, enthusiasm, friendliness, and congeniality. She should appear to be at ease with adults and should demonstrate a desirable degree of maturity. Because making appearances and speaking or promoting the Florida Strawberry Festival® for a full year will be her responsibility, she should not plan to enter other contests or assume other responsibilities that would conflict with her obligation to the Florida Strawberry Festival®. Finally, she should be of good moral character and should be the kind of young lady whom the Florida Strawberry Festival® and the people of the community would be proud to have represent them.

THE PAGEANT

Florida Strawberry Festival Grounds, Saturday, January 19, 2019, 6:00 p.m.

PHASE TWO: A continuation of the competition begins with this phase. The contestants will now be judged on the Public Speaking Competition only, with no relation to their other qualifications. The attire is to be the same career dress or coordinates as worn in the personal interviews.

A. In an opening introduction of the contestant and her sponsor, the contestant presents a speech of not more than 30 seconds pertaining to her sponsor. She will be judged, in part, on the effectiveness of her speaking voice, proper grammar and diction over the microphone. (A 1-point deduction will be taken off the score for every second over the allotted time limit).

- B. Stage Presence: Each contestant will be judged on her walk, carriage, general presentation, posture and stage personality.
- C. Overall look on stage: Each contestant will be judged on her beauty, poise and choice of attire.
- D. No Props can be used.

PHASE THREE: The contestants will be judged on Casual Wear only, with no relation to their other qualifications. The criteria for this division are as follows:

Casual wear is defined as denim jeans and a top.

In this division, the contestants will be judged on beauty, poise, posture, carriage, stage presence and stage personality.

PHASE FOUR: The contestants will be judged on the Evening Gown Competition only, with no relation to their other qualifications. The criteria for this division are as follows:

- A. Stage presence: Each contestant will be judged on her walk, carriage, general presentation, posture and stage personality.
- B. Overall look on the stage: Each contestant will be judged on her beauty and poise.

The judges will score the contestants separately for each phase of the competition. Neither the judges, chairman, nor auditor should disclose any information concerning the scores. In case of a tie vote in the tabulation of semifinalists, the auditor will inform only the chairman of the judges' committee of the tie vote. Only the judges will be involved in breaking a tie vote. Neither the judges, the chairman, nor the auditor should disclose any information concerning the tie vote, or the way it was resolved, except as indicated above.

After the ballots have been tabulated and points awarded in each division, the auditor will prepare a list of the names of the ten semifinalists for the first elimination in random order. Contestants are not to be listed in the order of points received.

FINAL ELIMINATION

The 10 semifinalists will now be competing against each other and will be judged on the following criteria:

Impromptu Public Speaking	25%
Overall Look	40%
Stage Presence	35%

Impromptu Public Speaking: The semifinalists will be asked the same impromptu question on her opinion of the Florida Strawberry Festival®, strawberries or Plant City. She will be judged on her ability to speak effectively in public, her speaking voice and her diction over a microphone.

Overall look on the stage: Each contestant will be judged on her beauty, poise and appearance in her gown.

Stage presence: Each contestant will be judged on her walk, carriage, general presentation, posture and stage personality.

When this phase of the judging is conducted, the chairman of the judges' committee will distribute ballots for this division to the judges. The judges will score the contestants and record these scores on their ballots. From the judge's tally sheet, the auditor will determine the five finalists who received the highest number of points. In case of a tie, the scores from the preliminary competition will be used to break the tie. From these finalists, a queen, 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th runners-up will be selected according to the highest number of points scored. The placement of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th runners-up will not be announced.

THE CORONATION

The coronation will begin with the abdication of the current queen and court and presentation of the new queen and court. Immediately after the coronation of the new queen, the auditor will destroy all tally sheets.
