Winners of Festival's 2020 exhibits contest announced

PLANT CITY, Fla. (March 3, 2020) – The Florida Strawberry Festival announced today the winners of its annual exhibits contest.

Each year, every exhibit including outside concessions, civic clubs, educational exhibits, arts and crafts, and others are judged on decoration and overall presentation.

“We encourage all of our guests to visit the grounds to see all the festival has to offer,” said Florida Strawberry Festival President Paul Davis. “Our vendors and concessionaires are a tremendous part of our event.”

In the arts and crafts category, The Glass Strawberry won first place; Functional Art for Kids won second place, and Justin’s Horseshoe Art won third place.

In the commercial exhibits category, L’Paige Cosmetics won first place; Jean Kay won second place, and Rainbow Bridge won third place.

In the outside concessions category, Spivey’s (Armory Back) won first place; Wooden Signs by Chris won second place, and Florida Food Specialties won third place.

In the educational exhibits category, the School District of Hillsborough County won first place, and the Hillsborough County 4-H Council won second place.

In the civic clubs category, St. Clements “Make Your Own Shortcake” won first place; East Hillsborough Historical Society won second place, and Plant City Chamber of Commerce won third place.

In the agricultural exhibits category, Parkesdale Farms won first place; Parkesdale Greenhouse won second place, and Wish Farms won third place.
