Winners of Festival's 2021 exhibits contest announced

PLANT CITY, Fla. (March 10, 2021) – The Florida Strawberry Festival announced today the winners of its annual exhibits contest.

Each year, every exhibit including outside concessions, civic clubs, educational exhibits, arts and crafts, and others are judged on decoration and overall presentation.

"We encourage all of our guests to visit the grounds to see all the festival has to offer," said Florida Strawberry Festival President Paul Davis. "Our vendors and concessionaires are a tremendous part of our event."

In the arts and crafts category, Anita's Country Crafts won first place, Deb's Country Classics second place, and Jan's Clay Flowers third place.

In the commercial exhibits category, Parkesdale Express won first place, Berry Amaz'n second place, and Country Homemade third place.

In the outside concessions category, Cookie Barn won first place, Spivey's (Armory Back) second place, and Sattler's Concession (Edwards Street) third place.

In the educational exhibits category, Hillsborough County Schools won first place.

In the civic clubs category, Chamber of Commerce won first place and Transforming Life Church second place.

In the agricultural exhibits category, Parkesdale Farms won first place, Parkesdale Greenhouse second place, and Florida Strawberry Growers Association third place.
