RULES AND REGULATIONS

EXHIBITOR ELIGIBILITY

Any youth, 8 years of age or older, actively enrolled as a member of a nationally affiliated agricultural youth organization or a Breed Association in a Hillsborough or Polk County school, and not having graduated from the 12th grade.

4-H and FFA members from Hillsborough and Polk Counties are invited to participate.

Committee members reserve the right to decline entry or participation to any exhibitor deemed restricted in any manor to safely partake in exhibiting cattle.

Entrants shall conform to the following standards in academics and conduct, which are presently a 2.0 grade average and the passing of five (5) classes for participation. Conduct and academics shall be figured for the second nine weeks' grading period of the school year during which the Show occurs or shall conform to grade standards as set by the Florida High School Activities Association. No one under school suspension will be allowed to show.

ANIMAL ELIGIBILITY

Eligible breeds: Angus, Brahman, Brangus, Beefmaster, Charolais, Chimaine, Hereford, Limousin, Maine Anjou, Santa Gertrudis, Shorthorn, Simmental, Ultrablack. Registered Bulls may be shown.

Commercial Heifers and Bulls (Brahman influence or English Continental influence).

Exhibitors will be allowed to enter two (2) animals. However, the Beef Breed Committee reserves the right to limit the participants to one (1) animal.

A prescreening committee will evaluate the cattle at check-in to ensure they possess the characteristics expected in breeding stock.

Exhibitors whose cattle do not meet show standards will be disqualified. Any disqualified cattle must be immediately removed.

REQUIREMENTS

- A. Exhibitors must have ownership of animals by November 30, 2022.
- B. All youth beef breed animals must be registered in the name of the youth exhibitor and registration papers must reflect the date of ownership by November 30, 2022.
- C. A copy of registration papers is required on ALL purebred cattle. It is mandatory that copies of the registration papers be uploaded with the entry form.
- D. Commercial heifer and bull entries must have a copy of the bill of sale or parental statement of ownership (for bred and owned cattle) since the animal's birth (including ownership date of dam and date of birth of calf) uploaded with the entry form.
- E. Bulls over the age of six (6) months must have a nose ring.
- F. Horned cattle with horns exceeding 1" in length will not be allowed in the show. Horns must not have sharp points or edges.
- G. Chapter/club animals may be exhibited in the Youth Beef Breed Show. Chapter/Club animals must be entered in the name of the chapter AND exhibitor. Exhibitors must be a member of the designated chapter/club and are required to show and care for the animal throughout the entire show. Exhibitors may compete in showmanship and herdsman contests.
- H. The Beef Breed Committee reserves the right to disqualify any animals that cannot be properly managed by the exhibitor. This includes resolving any other issues that may occur. Each exhibitor must assume all liability for his/her animal in case of injury or death.

HEALTH RULES ARE IN ACCORDANCE WITH FEDERAL AND STATE REQUIREMENTS.

- I. !!!NEW THIS YEAR!!! All exhibitors will be required to attend, or have attended, ethics training. The Florida Strawberry Festival will provide training at the Festival on December 3, 2022. Completion of any Florida State Fair 2022-2023 ethics class prior to 2/1/23 will meet the requirements. Training must be completed by January 31, 2023. Training after that date will not be accepted. Training is good for 3 years. Currently verification of training can be found at <https://floridastatefairag.com/ethics/verify/> . Another site to use for help in locating and registering for workshops is <https://floridastatefairag.com/ethics/workshop/#>
- J. All cattle must comply with the Cattle Traceability Requirement as outlined in Chapter 9, Part 86, Code of Federal Regulations, Published January 9, 2013 and the Florida Cattle Identification Rule Chapter 5C-31, Florida Administrative Code effective September 4, 2014. Additional information can be found at www.aphis.usda.gov/traceability and www.freshfromflorida.com/Divisions-Offices/Animal-Industry

Upon arrival and before admittance to the Florida Strawberry Festival Fairgrounds ALL cattle must have:

- Certificate of Veterinarian Inspection (Health Certificate by licensed veterinarian)
- Identification Device "Tag" (Tag, tattoo, vac tag, premise id tag, etc...)

In the event of the Florida Strawberry Festival® or government-imposed quarantine of animal(s) entered for exhibition or sale at the Florida Strawberry Festival®, the Florida Strawberry Festival®/Beef Breed Show Committee accepts no responsibility for financial, or other, loss by the exhibitor incurred as a result of the inability to exhibit and/or market the animal(s). Government refers to any City, County, State, or Federal Agency with the legal power to impose such quarantine. The preceding statement pertains to the entire time period (prior to, during, or after the exhibition days) of the show and/or sale. Financial, or other, loss refers to financial loss due to the inability to market the animal at the Festival and to loss of premiums and awards due to the inability to exhibit the animal.

CATTLE SHOW

There will be separate classes for each of the major breeds and commercial heifers.

Any breed represented by less than 5 animals will be required to exhibit in a class designated as “Other Breed” (AOB) classes. Classes will be determined after all entries are received and animals are checked in. Animals over 3-years of age after January 1, 2023 will not be permitted. Breed classes may be changed for the betterment of the show at the discretion of the Beef Breed Committee.

Commercial animal classes are determined by weight at check-in, and ALL ANIMALS WILL BE WEIGHED ON CHECK-IN DAY, both commercial and purebred.

Bred & Owned Class: Exhibitors must be the breeders and the first continuous owner.

- Exhibitor must mark their animal as a Bred & Owned at time of entry to be eligible to compete in that division. – EXHIBITOR MUST be Breeder, 1st and Continuous owner!
- If a protest is made about the validity of the animal being bred & owned, we will contact that exhibitor/family. If proof is provided that the animal is NOT in fact a bred & owned (I.e. – pictures, sale catalogs, proof of purchase) then the animal will be disqualified from the show. The exhibitor will forfeit their right to enter a bred & owned animal at ANY future Florida Strawberry Festival® Beef Breed Shows.
- If you have questions on our Bred & Owned class, please contact Ryan Gill, or email us at beefbreedshow@gmail.com.
